CRUSADER

Foreward

A hand-drawn scroll with a textured, sketchy border. The scroll is unrolled, showing text written in a cursive, handwritten style. The scroll is positioned diagonally across the upper left portion of the page.

Let your light
so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, which is in heaven.

Matt. 5:16

Dedication

Mrs. Lilly Erickson, Elementary Principal

"A faithful witness", our Elementary School principal has given seventeen years of her life to Village Christian School. Her school "family", numbering in the hundreds, has been fortunate to benefit from her greatest goal: to lead Village students into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Because she has been an inspiration to all who have been blessed by her living testimony, the students of Village Christian lovingly dedicate this 1970 CRUSADER annual to our own Mrs. Erickson. . .

Elementary School Activities

Special assembly programs enthuse everyone.

Hamburger and hot dog days provide variety at the lunch hour.

Supervised playground care provides recreational time.

Field trips to areas of study stimulate interest.

Kindergarten learn and play

Classrooms with a purpose . . .

ight: Boys and girls fish for phonic fish with Mrs. Swedberg.

Above: Daily Bible story hour is enjoyed in Mrs. Russell's class.

ight: Mrs. Browne's class shows their reading readiness charts.

Right: Spelling test takes concentration in Mrs. Glaser's first grade class.

Below: First graders study phonics with Mrs. Thorne.

1st & 2nd Grade

Missionary Activities

DAILY PRAYER AND OFFERINGS ARE A PART OF EACH CLASSROOM ACTIVITY, IN BEHALF OF MISSIONS AROUND THE WORLD.

IN ADDITION, OUR ANNUAL "MISSIONARY CHRISTMAS PARTIES" PROVIDE GIFTS OF TOYS, CLOTHES, AND NEEDED ITEMS FOR THE SOUTHWEST INDIAN SCHOOL IN ARIZONA.

(Above) Mr. and Mrs. Trist and John and Elsie Smith bring a busload of gifts to the Indian children.

(Left) P. T. F. room mothers gift wrap and pack hundreds of presents. Gifts of clothing is also sorted and labeled before shipment, to enable the less fortunate to have a Merry Christmas also.

Answers to Seniors Baby Pictures

A campaign fought and won
By student Prexy DeYoung;
Teased about being Dutch,
She's really too much!

Our class pres is great
At winning debate;
One day Berrie'll be
Head of NBC.

A studious lass
With lots of class—
According to Barrie
Cindi's very VERY!

Ron comes on with a bang
In his new Mustang;
But in class should awake,
For his Physics' sake.

A jolly green giant,
But sometimes defiant,
Provides fun for all,
Yep, - Senor Paul.

"Curly-locks" Chris
Whose harmonica we'll miss,
Good professor, he'd be -
Of philosophy.

Our queen will scream,
And cheer on our team;
As council treasurer,
She's without measure.

Didn't follow the piper,
Sherry "Candy Striper",
In Physics, her best
Is to pass a test.

"Brizzy" plays chess
If you'll say yes,
But really, his "bag"
Is to pull a gag.

We cannot compare
Linda's joy or despair;
Her music hath soul!
Deep as the Rose Bowl.

From New York and the snows,
Electronics, Dan knows -
As an Edison, he's bound
To outdo "Sight and Sound".

She's stylishly thin,
This lightweight Lynn,
But her flame-red hair
Could send up a flare!

Statuesque and tall,
Rhea loves basketball;
A sweet, quiet sort,
On words, she is short.

An Algebra III and IV,
She just didn't score;
Still calm and serene,
She's "Darling Doreen".
